Delta Zeta and the Miss LSU-USA Pageant Partnership

Each Greek organization at Louisiana State University supports a number of local and national philanthropies each year. The Delta Zeta chapter at LSU is ranked nationally for its outstanding hours of community services and annual monetary donations. On a national level, Delta Zeta supports the Painted Turtle Camp and Starkey Hearing Foundation. By participating in the Miss LSU-USA pageant, you are helping Delta Zeta raise money for these wonderful recipients and many more.

Our Philanthropies

St. Lillian Academy educates students using a unique team of teachers and therapists to give each child therapeutic support and individualized instruction. Alzheimer's Services of the Capital Area works locally to assist families and patients affected with Alzheimer's Disease. Baton Rouge Children's Advocacy Center focuses on creating a healing environment for children victims of abuse. The Painted Turtle Camp is an innovative, camp-based program that offers fun and support to children with medical conditions, while allowing them to enjoy childhood! Starkey Hearing Foundation is an international hearing aid organization working to treat hearing loss around the world.

Pageant Overview

The Miss LSU-USA Pageant is designed to be a positive experience for all contestants. We desire to help contestants sharpen their skills in health and fitness, beauty and poise, and interview. Many contestants enjoy the process as much as the outcome. The pageant will consist of an opening number that is solely for entertainment. As a delegate, you will be judged in four equal categories - Personal Interview, Swimsuit, Evening Gown, and On-stage Question. There is no talent competition. Each of the finalists will answer an on-stage question.

Judging and Awards

Miss LSU-USA is judged based on the USA pageant system; meaning each competition is worth the same amount and there is no talent competition. We select judges throughout the Southern region of Louisiana, whom include celebrities, business professionals, and distinguished LSU alumni! There will be a total of five judges. In addition to crowning our Miss LSU- USA 2017, we award winners for the categories of Miss Congeniality, Miss Photogenic, My Miss LSU, Swimwear, Evening Gown, and Interview.

Opening Number

The opening number is exclusively for entertainment purposes only and will not factor into the final judging of your score. It is also the first time that the audience sees you... A fun and exciting way to kick off what will be a successful pageant! We have a choreographed dance you will be performing and we will have weekly practices for you all to learn the dance! Outfits will be checked so please keep your outfit selections tasteful and appropriate! Any outfit changes made without approval from the Miss LSU 2017 Committee will result in exclusion from the opening number, which decision will be at the discretion of Alexis Benoit, Executive Director.

Practices

There are five mandatory practices for the pageant held on Sunday nights intended to focus on varying aspects of the pageant, such as opening number, interview questions, walking in evening gowns and swimsuits, and onstage questions! Contestants must be there for 5:45p.m. Practices begin at 6 p.m. sharp and last until approximately 8 pm and will be held at the UREC on LSU's Campus. We need ALL contestants at every practice!! If you miss more than one practice, you CANNOT be in the opening number, no exceptions! Mandatory pageant rehearsal will be the evening of Friday, March 24th. This will include a full run through, so please plan accordingly. If you have any further questions or comments please contact us at misslsudirector@gmail.com. The practices will be held on the following dates:

Sunday, February 12th

Sunday, February 19th

On-Stage Sample Questions

Your submitted ideas and sample questions will be used to format those used in the Finalist competition of the pageant. You may type your question and include your name and email it to me. These questions can range from topics on current events, the Louisiana State government, budget cuts, and education in the state of Louisiana; however, you can still be fun and creative with your questions! This question is the last chance that the judges will get to listen to your opinion on an issue, your value of life, something about LSU, etc. So be sure to make it interesting! The director and the Miss LSU-USA committee will personally handpick this question bank. Contestants will have an opportunity to submit ideas for these questions, and we encourage you to submit creative and relevant questions focusing on current events, LSU, etc. We do our best to ensure all questions will be based on the same level of difficulty. Please keep your questions confidential as to not give other contestant's advantage. However, please note that some questions and answers may not be used in the pageant. Please turn in these questions on February 19, 2017.
